Megan McClain was born and raised in a small Missouri town, but eventually moved east to Tennessee to attend Belmont University. While living in Nashville, she met a cute guy from Chattanooga and they tied the knot on the pier at Ross's Landing in 2017. By day, Megan enjoys her job as a realtor in Chattanooga, the city she now calls home. By night, she lives out her Broadway dreams by singing show tunes in the kitchen and Face Timing with her nieces and nephews back in Missouri.
